This page contains ten horizontal guitar fretboard diagrams, each representing a different string pattern. The diagrams are arranged vertically and include various annotations:

- Diagram 1: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. A bracket below the first six frets is labeled '9'. The entire diagram is repeated four times, indicated by '4x' at the top.
- Diagram 2: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first seven frets and the last seven frets are labeled '7'. The diagram is repeated four times, indicated by '4x' at the top right.
- Diagram 3: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. A central bracket below the first seven frets is labeled '7'. The text 'june 6' is written below the diagram.
- Diagram 4: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first seven frets and the last seven frets are labeled '7'. The diagram is repeated eight times, indicated by '8x' at the top right.
- Diagram 5: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first seven frets and the last seven frets are labeled '7'. The diagram is repeated three times, indicated by '3x' at the top right.
- Diagram 6: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first nine frets and the last nine frets are labeled '9'. The diagram is repeated three times.
- Diagram 7: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first ten frets and the last ten frets are labeled '10'. The diagram is repeated three times.
- Diagram 8: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first eleven frets and the last eleven frets are labeled '11'. Brackets above the first twelve frets and the last twelve frets are labeled '12'. The diagram is repeated three times.
- Diagram 9: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first thirteen frets and the last thirteen frets are labeled '13'. Brackets above the first fourteen frets and the last fourteen frets are labeled '14'. The diagram is repeated three times.
- Diagram 10: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. Brackets above the first fifteen frets and the last fifteen frets are labeled '15'. The text 'july 1st' is written below the first six frets. The diagram is repeated two times.
- Diagram 11: Shows a pattern of notes on the top six strings. Brackets below the first six frets and the last six frets are labeled '6'. A bracket below the last five frets is labeled '5'. The diagram is repeated two times.

The image displays three staves of musical notation for guitar exercises. Each staff begins with a double bar line and a vertical line, indicating the start of the exercise. The notation consists of a sequence of notes on a single staff, with a thick black bar above the notes indicating a specific fret level. Below the notes, there are 'x' marks on a lower line, with vertical lines connecting them to the notes above, likely representing fretting points or fingerings. Brackets below the notes indicate the number of frets between notes, with the number '5' appearing under several brackets. The exercises are labeled with the numbers '17' and '18' in bold, italicized font. The first staff contains two measures of exercise 17. The second staff contains two measures of exercise 17 and one measure of exercise 18. The third staff contains one measure of exercise 18. At the bottom right of the third staff, the duration '8'19.0"' is written.
